2001 Uniform Business Report

Dear Sir:

The taxpayer referenced above has requested that we contact your office regarding the late fee assessment of $400 for the 2001 Uniform Business Report (UBR). Mr. Mario Martorella is a very conscientious businessman. Without fail, he files and pays every tax return he receives. The problem with the 2001 UBR is that he has no record of ever receiving the first report sent out. At the time the reports were mailed by the state, the bookkeeper 5 years left for maternity leave, and this created a very difficult situation for him. Had he received the form, he would have complied with filing it immediately.

If you would review the file of PC Help Desk, Inc., you will see that this corporation has a history of timely filing and payment for this and all other filings. We respectfully request your consideration in accepting this 2001 UBR as timely filed.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter. Your cooperation will be greatly appreciated.

Very truly yours,

2001 Uniform Business Report

Dear Sir:

We are in receipt of your letter dated October 23, 2001 in which you state that you are unable to honor our request that the late fee assessment for the taxpayer referenced above be waived. Please be advised that this taxpayer did not receive the second notice from your office advising him that he was late in filing the 2001 UBR until September 21, 2001, and filed it on September 27th, requesting that the late fee assessment of $400 be waived due to non receipt of the original notice.

If you would review the file of PC Help Desk, Inc., you will see that this corporation has a history of timely filing and payment for this and all other filings. We respectfully request your consideration in accepting this 2001 UBR as timely filed.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter. Your cooperation will be greatly appreciated.

Very truly yours,
