The general nature of business of the corporation shall be as follows:

1. To engage in any activity or business permitted under the laws of the United States of America and the State of Florida.
2. To transact the business of investing on behalf of itself or others, any part of its capital and such additional funds as it may obtain, or any interest therein, either as tenant in common or otherwise, and selling or otherwise disposing of same, or any part thereof, or interest therein.
3. To apply for, purchase, or in any manner to acquire, hold, own, use and operate; to sell or in any manner dispose of, to grant or license other rights, interests, inventions, improvements and processes used in connection with or secured under letters, patents or copyrights of the United States of America or other countries or otherwise, and to work, operate and/or develop the same.
4. To purchase, lease or otherwise acquire, and to hold, own, sell or dispose of, real and personal property of all kinds, and in particular, lands, buildings, business concerns and undertakings, shares of stock, mortgages, bonds, debentures and other securities, merchandise, book debts and claims, trademarks, trade names, and any interest in real or personal property.
5. To borrow money for its corporate purposes, and to make, accept, endorse, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bonds, debentures and other obligations from time to time for the purchase of property, or for any purpose in or about the business of the corporation, and if deemed proper, to secure the payment of any such obligation by mortgage, pledge, deed of trust or otherwise.

6. To acquire and take over as a going concern, and thereafter to carry on the business of, any person, firm or corporation engaged in any business which this corporation is authorized to carry on, and in connection therewith to acquire the goodwill and all or any of the assets, and to assume or otherwise provide for all or any of the liabilities of any such business.

7. To sell, improve, manage, develop, lease, mortgage, dispose of, or otherwise turn to account or deal with all or any part of the property of the corporation.

8. To carry on business at any place or places within the jurisdiction of the United States of America, and in any and all foreign countries, and to purchase, hold, mortgage, convey, lease or otherwise dispose of and deal with real and personal property at any such place or places.

9. To enter into, make, perform and carry out contracts of every sort and kind which may be necessary or convenient for the business of the corporation or business of a similar nature, with any person, firm, corporation, private, public or municipal body politic under the government of the United States of America, of any state, territory or colony thereof, or any foreign government, so far as, and to the extent that the same may be done and performed by corporations under applicable law.

10. To do all and every thing necessary, suitable or proper for the accomplishment of any of the purposes, the attainment of any of the objects, or the furtherance of any of the powers hereinbefore set forth, either alone or in connection with other corporations, firms, or individuals, and either as principals or agents, and to do every act or acts, thing or things, incidental or appurtenant to or growing out of or connected with the aforesaid objects, purposes or powers of any of them.

11. In general, to carry on any other lawful business whatsoever in connection with the foregoing or which is calculated directly or indirectly to promote the interest of the corporation or to enhance the value of its properties.

12. The foregoing enumeration of specific powers shall not be deemed to limit or restrict in any manner the general powers of the corporation, and the enjoyment and exercise thereof, as conferred by the laws of the State of Florida upon corporations for profit.
