Re: 2001 Uniform Business Report, Check # 273 and Petition

Dear Sir, Dear Madame,:

Very much we apologize for sending this filing later.

For whatever it might be worth, here is why:

1. ECCO is owned by me only and I am the only employee.

I am still building up the business and I am almost there but not yet.

2. ECCO was waiting for funds to come in, to pay open bills; they arrived a little later, too late to meet your deadline.

3. I all of a sudden became a single parent; my wife moved to Europe; we were in very difficult discussions and arrangements for the summer vacation for our six year old child, in addition to everything else.

It was a mess. - This is NOT a complaint. -

I would kindly ask you once to please waive the penalty of $ 400.--, because this would create an additional hardship at this particular point in time. It might sound strange but is a matter of fact.

ECCO will never ever again ask you for this favor.

Thank you for your time and I would appreciate very much your positive response.

Sincerely,

ECCO Real Estate Investments, Inc.

Gerd Behnke, President
