No contract or other transaction between the Corporation and one or more of its directors, or between the Corporation and any other corporation, firm, association or other entity in which one or more of its directors are directors or officers, or are financially interested, shall be either void or voidable because of such relationship or interest, because such director or directors are present at the meeting of the Board of Directors or a committee thereof which authorizes, approves, or ratifies such contract or transaction, or because his or her votes are counted for such purpose, if:

(87810000096H)

(H96000001878)

(a) The fact of such relationship or interest is disclosed or known to the Board of Directors or committee which authorizes, approves, or ratifies the contract or transaction by a vote or consent sufficient for the purpose without counting the votes or consents of such interested directors; or

(b) The fact of such relationship or interest is disclosed or known to the shareholders entitled to vote and they authorize, approve, or ratify such contract or transaction by vote or written consent; or

(c) The contract or transaction is fair and reasonable as to the Corporation at the time it is authorized by the Board of Directors, committee, or the shareholders.

A director of the Corporation may transact business, borrow, lend, or otherwise deal or contract with the Corporation to the full extent permitted under, and subject only to the limitations and provisions of, the laws of the State of Florida and the laws of the United States.

Common or interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Directors or a committee thereof which authorizes, approves or ratifies such contract or transaction, and the presence or vote of common or interested directors may be counted for purposes of determining whether the transaction is approved under provisions of Florida law other than those relating to director conflicts of interest.

ARTICLE X - No Anti-Takeover Law Governance

The Corporation shall not be governed by Sections 607.0901 or 607.0902 of the Florida Business Corporation Act or any laws related thereto.

ARTICLE XI - Indemnification

The Corporation shall indemnify and shall advance expenses on behalf of its officers and directors to the fullest extent permitted by law in existence either now or hereafter.

ARTICLE XII - Fiscal Year

The fiscal year of this Corporation shall be the calendar year, unless otherwise established by the Board of Directors.
