Dear Sir or Madam,

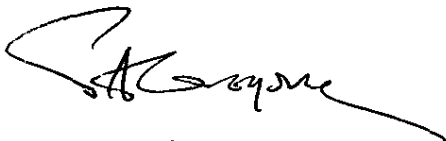

I have just received a late notice from you regarding my UBR for 2003; it has been delayed in arriving as my mail is currently forwarded to Maine, where my wife and I will be spending the next several weeks. Earlier this year I changed my office management, and I was appalled to receive this second notice. I have always made my corporate filing on time and have no idea what happened this Spring; I have no record of receiving it and no way of finding out whether we ever received it or not. I am embarrassed to find that it has not been paid and enclose the UBR with my standard check. In view of the confusion that I find and my past record, I would very much appreciate your accepting that I have not received the earlier notice, and had no intention of not paying on time this year any more than every year in the past, during which I have always made my payments on time.

I completely apologize for this situation and it will not happen again!

Last year I believe I was successful in filing electronically but I have not been able to make it work on your web site today. If I can do so in the future with my credit card, I would prefer to do so to avoid another situation like this; please let me know how I can do that.

Thank you for your help. If you need to contact me please do so at (207)824-8675 as this is more reliable than my cell phone in Maine!

Sincerely yours,

Peter A. Gregory
