Ms. Sheau Toner,

I spoke to someone at "Division of Corporations" this morning to explain why I'm filing late. They told me to drop you this note and see if you can help me.

I'm writing this from the state of Pa., where I've been for much of the last year. My father passed away about six months. And my Mother of 86, is ill also. I've been spending six weeks here and then 4 weeks in Florida. My roommate did ^{not} realize the "Annual Corp. report" ~~had~~ to be returned by May 1, 1999, with $50.00. He instead gave it to me with other paper for my accountant in June-99, and it was turned over to be filed for late, the accountant had gotten an extortion. Because of my family hardship, I am now to pay the $100.00 late fee. Division of Corporations, office ^{said} you may be able to help, they said send $60.00, and if this is not possible you would let me know. Please contact me thru this Pa. address of:
