Dear Mr. Scott,

At your request, I am sending you this letter so that the $400 late fee will be waived, because I had not received my first notice from the Division of Corporations.

As you can see from the copy of the completed form I've enclosed, my business has moved location. I am assuming that the first notice was not properly forwarded by the U.S. Post Office.

After receiving the Second Notice (which did have a yellow forwarding sticker on the envelope) I sent a check for $150 along with a letter explaining that I had never received the first notice. In return, I was sent back a form letter, a copy of which I have enclosed.

Thank you for your help in this matter. You can reach me by phone at (954) 472-7343.

Sincerely,

Scott Teitler
