To Whom This May Concern,

I am paying the annual report fee of $150.00 but not the $400.00 late fee for the following reasons:

1. I never recieved a first notice for filing the annual corporate report.
2. My husband who was an accountant and did all my accounting was in a devastating car accident this past year. He was in a coma for a month and has been in retraining therapy ever since.

I have been having to quickly learn how to do my own accounting since I can't afford much with my husband (and one of my children) being seriously disabled. Since a first notice never came, I didn't know to look for an annual corporate report.

3. When I recieved the second notice, I immediately called the 1-800- number and explained #1 + #2. the woman who helped me forgot to tell me to send my payment and explanation letter to a different address. So I already tried to send back the report and fee but in the standard envelope.

Hopefully this will clear this matter up.

Thank You,

Marcy Lee Howard
