RE: 2nd Notice-Annual Report Filing
Affordable Rooms for Less of Hollywood, Inc.

Gentlemen,

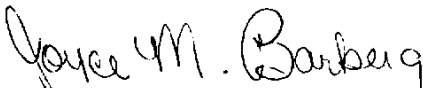

Please be advised that we are the accountants for the above named corporation.

While processing the company's 2nd quarter accounting work, it was brought to our attention by the bookkeeper who handles this account that the 1999 annual report filing for this company was not paid. We advised the client, whom; unaware of the missed 1st filing informed us that the 2nd notice had never been received. We then researched the State's records through the Internet and found that the annual report was mailed to an incorrect address. The address on the document is that of the original owner, who is no longer affiliated with the Company. Until the search was done, the new owner was not aware that the address change was not reported.

In lieu of the above, we ask that any late fees be waived.

Thanking you in advance for your consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,

Joyce M. Barbera
