Gentlemen,

My wife, Tracey and I have been conducting our business under an S-Corporation for the past seven years. We have always paid our corporate renewal Uniform Business Report at the first opportunity after receiving the notice from you. This year, for some reason, we never did receive the original filing notice. It was never delivered to us in the mail. The first notice we got was the second notice with a $400 fine added to the amount we usually pay. My wife called your office and explained the situation to the representative who handled her call. She told us to provide you with this letter to explain the extraordinary turn of events with the mailings this year, and to include a check for the standard amount that we pay for the renewal of the corporate licensing. I am enclosing a check in the amount of $150. I would ask you to please consider the circumstances and rescind the large fine in light of the fact that we have traditionally paid when we received the filing notice from you, and did not get one this year until the late notice was delivered. Thank you so much.

Sincerely yours for a strong Florida business economy,

Steve Spracklen & Tracey Spracklen
