Dear Sirs:

Please let this letter serve as an explanation of a series of events which led to the renewal of my corporation, Daniel Rodriguez, Inc. not being filed in a timely fashion.

There was a miscommunication between my accountant and I as to who was going to send payment. Also, I have been away from town frequently due to a family member which is battling cancer and I have not been able to analyze my correspondence as usual. I never saw the First Notice from the State that the corporation was delinquent. I did however receive the last notice which was sent and was totally astonished that it had not been renewed. I have had Daniel Rodriguez, Inc. since 1996 and have always filed on time.

I pray that the State will forgive me for being late with my renewal fee and accept my check for $150.00, which is enclosed. My family and I are going through a bit of financial hard time due to work being so slow and other financial family commitments. Thank you for considering my situation.

Sincerely,

Daniel Rodriguez
