4th November 1997

Dear Sirs,

It is with regret that we have received your document No. P960000 22572, a notice of dissolution of Kowie Enterprises Inc.

We are new to America and have not been aware of the requirement to file an annual report. Receipt of the above mentioned document was the first indication we received of our default, in this regard.

We have contacted the offices of our accountant and the former registered agent and neither will admit to having received your reminder to us and of having failed to forward it to ourselves.

In our telephone call this morning to your offices, in which we discussed this matter with one of your representatives, it was indicated that we should offer this letter of explanation and apology, for our oversight in this matter, together with our check for $165.00, being the amount due for 1997.

Thanking you in anticipation.

Yours faithfully,

ALLAN SNOEK
