Such consent shall have the same effect as a unanimous vote.

ARTICLE XII. AMENDMENT OF ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended at any time in accordance with the provisions of § 607.1002, Florida Statutes.

ARTICLE XIII. GENERAL POWERS

This corporation may exercise all powers which may be legally exercised pursuant to the laws of the State of Florida, including, inter alia, those powers enumerated in § 607.0302, Florida Statutes.

ARTICLE XIV. OFFICERS

The officers of this corporation shall consist of at least a President and a Secretary, and any other officer required by the by-laws of the corporation. All officers shall be elected and removed by the Board of Directors as provided for in the by-laws of the corporation. Assistant officers and other agents of the corporation may be elected or appointed as provided for in the by-laws of the corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person.

ARTICLE XV. INDEMNIFICATION

The corporation shall indemnify all directors, officers and authorized agents of the corporation who are made a party, or threatened to be made a party, to any litigation or legal proceeding, whether civil or criminal, administrative or investigative, arising from the fact that such person is a director, officer or authorized agent of the corporation, against all expenses, attorney's fees (including appellate proceedings), judgments, fines and, subject to obtaining the prior written consent of the corporation, amounts paid in settlement as well as costs reasonable incurred in connection with such litigation or proceedings, unless (a) a court of competent jurisdiction finally determines, after all appeals are exhausted or if such appeals are not pursued by the proposed indemnitee, that the proposed indemnitee did not act in good faith or in a manner the proposed indemnitee reasonably believed to be in the best interest of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, that the proposed indemnitee did not have reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was lawful, and (b) such court also determines specifically that indemnification should be denied due to the circumstances giving rise to such proceedings. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement of conviction or upon a plea of no contest or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that a person seeking indemnification did not act in good faith and in a manner which the person reasonably believed to be in the best interest of the corporation, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding did not have reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was lawful.

A. Expenses: To the extent that a director, officer or authorized agent of the corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in this Article, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he or she shall be indemnified against all expense including attorney's fees actually and reasonably incurred in connection therewith,

B. Advances: All expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of a written undertaking by or on behalf of the proposed indemnitee to repay such amount unless it shall be ultimately determined that such proposed indemnitee is entitled to indemnification pursuant to this Article.

C. Miscellaneous: The indemnification provided for in this Article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which one who is seeking indemnification may be entitled under any by-law, agreement, corporate resolution, vote of the shareholders or otherwise, and such rights shall also inure to the heirs and personal representatives of the proposed indemnitee.

D. Insurance: The corporation shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is a director, officer, employee or authorized agent of the corporation, or who is serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or authorized agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against liability arising by virtue of acting in such capacity, or arising out of the person's status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify the person under this article.

E. Amendment: Anything to the contrary notwithstanding, the provisions of this Article may not be amended without the approval in writing of all persons whose interest at the time the amendment is proposed would be adversely affected by such amendment.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have acknowledged these Articles of Incorporation and subscribed thereto this 8th day of March, 1996.
