REGARDING: Notice of Dissolution of Corporation

Per a phone conversation with your office on November 30, 1998, I was told to include with my renewal fee of $550.00 a letter explaining why this obligation had not been paid per now.

I received the original packet from your office in January, I misplaced it and contacted your office and requested a copy in April. You explained that when I received the new packet in seven to 14 days, to complete the information and because I called I would only owe $150.00. This packet was never received.

I requested again on three different occasions through your audimated system the same packet to complete this obligation, I have not received and correspondence of any kind from your office until the "Dissolution." I called on November 30, 1998 and was told that it was my obligation to return the information and payment timely. I asked on more than one occasion, if I could send my check and complete your paperwork when I received it and was told no.

I do not understand why I never received any other notices before this notice. Please review my request and contact me at the above address of number about what can be done to correct this error?
