Dear Sir/Madam,

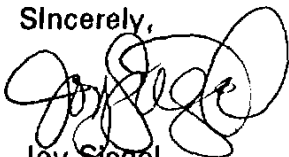

I am submitting this letter to you informing you of the reason for the late response on behalf of my new corporation, Joy Siegel & Associates. I became incorporated in March, 1996 and worked with the guidance of an attorney who was supposed to provide me with the information needed to work within the guidelines of the State of Florida.

I am the sole officer of the corporation and upon becoming incorporated I became pregnant and faced a trying challenge of starting a new business. Needless to say, the year was rocky and quite a struggle. Additionally, I first incorporated using my parents home address, thus, my mail went to their home. Between having a baby, starting a business, buying a home, and maintaining my personal life, I was unaware of the responsibility of maintaining a business. I never even saw the filing form, I only recently received this form.

I now appeal to you to allow my corporation to pay the $165 filing fee. My fledgling business is only beginning to run and I am unable to afford the extended fee. I hope you will understand.

I submit this to you with the best of intentions - now that my address in changed I will receive my mail and reply accordingly.

Sincerely,

Joy Siegel
