To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is in regards to the annual business report for 2000. We never received any notices about the filing and we have recently relocated. Financial problems have caused us to move our offices and most of the paper work has been lost or misplaced. Please accept our apologies and accept this check for the $150.00 for the 2000 filing year. We never meant to send the report late, but financial difficulties have led us to misplacing documents.

Thank you very much for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Joaquin Carrasquilla
President
