To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter to inform you that for two years in a row we did not receive the first notice for the filing of our annual report. Payment has been made on the 2nd notice each time, with a late fee added. I was just informed by Kristen (in your office) that we could mail a letter stating that we had not received the first notice and only pay the $150.00, which I am doing for Tax ID #59-3372396. I would also at this time like to request a refund on Tax ID#59-2983901. I know it has already been filed, but under the circumstances, I feel that this is a small request due to the fact that I paid late fees for both corporations last year because I did not receive the first notice and was not aware that they could be waived.

Thank You
