Dear Mr. Toner,

We received your letter, a copy of which is enclosed in May. In response to the letter I called your office a couple of weeks ago and spoke with Cathy. I informed her that I had indeed sent in the Annual Report and a check (#696) for the 1998 dues. She informed me that your office had received it, however the report had not been signed by the agent so it had been sent back to us along with the check. I told her we had never received them back in the mail and she said I could just refile and send another check to cover 1998 and that we would not be charged any reinstatement fees. You will find them both enclosed. I wish to thank you and your staff for the cooperation and understanding shown in this matter.

Sincerely,
Teresa K. Picard
