AUTHORIZED SHARES

Section 1. Number of Shares. The total number of shares of all classes of stock which the corporation shall have authority to issue is 16,000,000, consisting of (i) 6,000,000 shares of Common Stock, $10.00 par value per share ("Common Stock"), and (ii) 10,000,000 shares of Preferred Stock, $1.00 par value per share ("Preferred Stock").

Section 2. Unissued Shares. Unless otherwise provided hereinafter or in any articles of amendment providing for the determination of a class or series of stock, shares of capital stock of the corporation that have been issued and which are subsequently acquired by the corporation shall constitute issued but not outstanding shares of the same class and series, until canceled or disposed of (whether by resale or otherwise) by the corporation, and upon cancellation, the canceled shares shall constitute authorized and unissued shares of the same class and shall be undesignated as to series.

Section 3. Dividends. For purposes of determining funds lawfully available for any dividends or other distribution upon shares of stock, amounts needed to satisfy the rights of shareholders upon dissolution who have preferential rights superior to those of shareholders of the stock receiving such dividend or distribution shall not be deducted from the corporation's total assets.

Section 4. Powers and Designations. The following is a statement of the designations and the powers, privileges and rights, and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof in respect of each class of capital stock of the corporation.

(a) Common Stock.

(1) Generally. The voting, dividend and liquidation rights of the holders of the Common Stock are subject to and qualified by the rights of the holders of the Preferred Stock of any series as may be designated by the Board of Directors upon any issuance of the Preferred Stock of any series.

(2) Voting. The holders of the Common Stock are entitled to one vote for each share held at all meetings of shareholders, except that shareholders are entitled to cumulate their votes for directors.

(3) Dividends. Dividends may be declared and paid on the Common Stock from funds lawfully available therefor as and when determined by the Board of Directors and subject to any preferential dividend rights of any then outstanding Preferred Stock, subject to the restrictions upon dividends to stockholders of insurance corporations contained in Section 628.371, Florida Statutes (1999).

(4) Liquidation. Upon the dissolution or liquidation of the corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, holders of Common Stock will be entitled to receive all assets of the corporation available for distribution to its shareholders, subject to any preferential rights of any then outstanding Preferred Stock, and to the provisions of Chapter 631 of the Florida Statutes relating to insolvency of insurance corporations.

(b) Preferred Stock.

(1) Generally. Preferred Stock may be issued from time to time in one or more series, each of such series to have such terms as stated or expressed herein and in the resolution or resolutions providing for the issue of such series adopted by the Board of Directors of the corporation as hereinafter provided. Any shares of Preferred Stock which may be redeemed, purchased or acquired by the corporation may be reissued except as otherwise provided by law. Different series of Preferred Stock shall not be construed different classes of shares for the purposes of voting by classes unless expressly provided.

(2) Issuance of Preferred Stock. Authority is hereby expressly granted to the Board of Directors from time to time to issue the Preferred Stock in one or more series, and in connection with the creation of any such series, by resolution or resolutions providing for the issues of the shares thereof, to determine and fix such voting powers, full or limited, or no voting powers, and such designations, preferences and relative participating, optional or other special rights, and qualification, limitations or restrictions thereof, including without limitation thereof, dividend rights, special voting rights, conversion rights, redemption privileges and liquidation preferences, as shall be stated and expressed in such resolutions, all to the full extent now or hereafter permitted by the corporate law of Florida. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the resolutions providing for issuance of any series of Preferred Stock may provide that such series shall be superior or rank equally or be junior to the Preferred Stock of any other series to the extent permitted by law. Except as otherwise specifically provided in a resolution establishing a series of Preferred Stock, no vote of the holders of the Preferred Stock or Common Stock shall be a prerequisite to the issuance of any shares of any series of the Preferred Stock authorized by and complying with the conditions of these Articles of Incorporation, the right to have such vote being expressly waived by all present and future holders of the capital stock in the corporation.

ARTICLE IV

TERM OF EXISTENCE

The corporation shall exist perpetually.

ARTICLE V

REGISTERED OFFICE AND AGENT

The registered office of this corporation shall be Foley & Lardner, 300 East Park Avenue, Tallahassee, Florida 32301, and the registered agent of this corporation at such office shall be Clyde W. ("Billy") Galloway, Jr., who upon accepting this designation agrees to comply with the provisions of Section 48.091, Florida Statutes, as amended from time to time, with respect to keeping an office to receive service of process from the Treasurer and Insurance Commissioner of the State of Florida.

ARTICLE VI

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. Number and Powers. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of a Board of Directors which shall consist of not less than five (5) persons. The number of directors shall be fixed from time to time by the Board of Directors pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the Whole Board of Directors. The term "Whole Board" means the total number of authorized directorships (whether or not any vacancies exist in previously authorized directorships at the time such resolution is presented to the Board of Directors for adoption). In addition to the powers and authority expressly conferred upon the directors by statute, these Restated Articles of Incorporation or the Bylaws of the corporation, the directors are empowered to exercise all powers and do all acts as may be exercised or done by the corporation.

Section 2. Election and Terms. The Board of Directors shall be divided into three classes with the term of office of the first class of directors to expire at the 2001 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, the term of office of the second class of directors to expire at the 2002 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, and the term of office of the third class of directors to expire at the 2003 Annual Meeting of Shareholders with each director to hold office until a successor is elected and qualified. At each Annual Meeting of Shareholders following initial classification and election, directors elected to succeed those directors whose terms expire shall be elected for a term of office to expire at the third succeeding Annual Meeting of Shareholders after their election with each director to hold office until a successor is elected and qualified.

Section 3. Quorum and Voting. A majority of directors in office shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The vote of a majority of directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall constitute the action of the Board of Directors, except where a vote of more than a majority is required for particular action by either these Articles of Incorporation or the Bylaws. A director of the corporation who is present at a meeting of the Board of Directors when corporate action is taken is deemed to have assented to the action taken unless the director: (a) objects to at the beginning of the meeting (or promptly upon his or her arrival) to holding, or transacting business at, the meeting; or (b) votes against or abstains from the action taken. If less than a quorum is present, then a majority of those directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is present. Any meeting of the Board of Directors at which a quorum is present may be adjourned from day to day or from time to time by a vote of a majority of the directors present and voting at such meeting, the same may be adjourned from time to time until a quorum is obtained, or may be adjourned without assigning a day for further meeting. At any adjourned meeting at which a quorum is present, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the original meeting.

Section 4. Vacancies and Increase in Number of Directors. Subject to the rights of the holders of any then outstanding Preferred Stock, newly-created directorships resulting from an increase in the authorized number of directors or from vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting from a director's death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, removal from office or other cause may be filled only by a majority vote of the directors then in office, though less than a quorum, and directors so chosen shall hold office until the unexpired term of the vacancy filled by such director and until their successors have been elected and qualified. No decrease in the number of directors constituting the Board of Directors shall shorten the term of an incumbent director.

Section 5. Removal of Directors. Any or all directors of the corporation may be removed from office at any time by the affirmative vote of the holders of eighty percent (80%) of the issued and outstanding shares of the capital stock of the corporation voting at a duly called annual or special meeting of the shareholders; provided, however, that a director may not be removed if the number of votes sufficient to elect the director under cumulative voting is voted against his or her removal, and provided that notice of the annual or special meeting states that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is the removal of the director.

ARTICLE VII

INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1. Indemnification.

(a) Generally. The corporation (and any successor to the corporation by merger or otherwise) shall, and does hereby, indemnify, to the fullest extent permitted or authorized by current or future legislation (specifically including the full extent of indemnification permitted by §607.0850(7) Fla. Stat. (1994), or current or future judicial or administrative decisions (but, in the case of any such future legislation or decisions, only to the extent that it permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior to such legislation or decision)), each person (including the heirs, personal representatives, executors, administrators and estate of the person) who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, or was or is a witness, to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative and any appeal therefrom (collectively, a "Proceeding"), against all liability (which for purposes of this Article includes all judgments, settlements, penalties, fines and taxes under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended) and costs, charges, and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) asserted against him or incurred by him by reason of the fact that the person is or was (i) a director, or (ii) an officer of an employee of the corporation who is specifically granted the indemnification rights provided hereby by the Board of Directors, or (iii) serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise (including serving as a fiduciary of an employee benefit plan) and as to whom the Board has granted the right to indemnification provided hereby (each an "Indemnified Person").

(b) Notice of Denial. Notwithstanding the foregoing, except with respect to the indemnification specified in the third sentence of Section 3 of this Article, the corporation shall indemnify an Indemnified Person in connection with a Proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by an Indemnified Person only if authorization for the Proceeding (or part thereof) was not denied by the Board of Directors of the corporation, acting in its sole discretion, within 60 days after receipt of notice thereof from the Indemnified Person.

Section 2. Advance of Costs, Charges and Expenses. Costs, charges and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by an Indemnified Person in defending a Proceeding shall be paid by the corporation to the fullest extent permitted or authorized by current or future legislation or current or future judicial or administrative decisions (but, in the case of any future legislation or decisions, only to the extent that it permits the corporation to provide broader rights to advance costs, charges and expenses than permitted prior to the legislation or decisions) in advance of the final disposition of the Proceeding, upon receipt of an undertaking reasonably satisfactory to the Board of Directors (the "Undertaking") by or on behalf of the Indemnified Person to repay all amounts so advanced if it is ultimately determined that such person is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation as authorized in this Article; provided that, in connection with a Proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such Indemnified Person (except a Proceeding authorized by the second sentence of Section 3 of this Article), the corporation shall pay the costs, charges and expenses in advance of the final disposition of the Proceeding only if authorization for the Proceeding (or part thereof) was not denied by the Board of Directors of the corporation, acting in its sole discretion, within 60 days after receipt of a request for advancement accompanied by an Undertaking. A person to whom costs, charges and expenses are advanced pursuant to this Article shall not be obligated to repay pursuant to the Undertaking until the final determination of (a) the pending Proceeding in a court of competent jurisdiction concerning the right of that person to be indemnified or (b) the obligation of the person to repay pursuant to the Undertaking.

Section 3. Representation by Counsel. The Board of Directors may, upon approval of the Indemnified Person, authorize the corporation's counsel to represent the Indemnified Person in any action, suit or proceeding, whether or not the corporation is a party to the action, suit or proceeding. In the event that the corporation's counsel is representing the Indemnified Person and subject to any limitations imposed by law or any insurance policy referred to in Section 5 of this Article VII, any Indemnified Person shall have the right to retain separate counsel and to have the reasonable fees and expenses of such counsel paid as incurred as provided herein in the event such person reasonably believes that there is an actual or potential conflict in interest between the corporation and such person or in the event the corporation or its insurer shall have failed to assume the defense and employ counsel acceptable to such person within a reasonable period of time after commencement of any action. In the event that the Indemnified Person does not authorize representation by the corporation's counsel, for reasons other than an actual or potential conflict of interest or a failure on the part of the corporation to assume the defense or employ counsel acceptable to the Indemnified Person within a reasonable period of time, the corporation shall not be required to pay the fees and expenses of separate counsel employed by the Indemnified Person.

Section 4. Procedure for Indemnification. Any indemnification or advance under this Article shall be made promptly, and in any event within 60 days after delivery of the written request of the Indemnified Person. The right to indemnification or advances as granted by this Article shall be enforceable by an Indemnified Person in any court of competent jurisdiction if the corporation denies the request under this Article in whole or in part, or if no disposition of the request is made within the 60-period after delivery of the request. The requesting person's costs and expenses incurred in connection with successfully establishing his right to indemnification, in whole or in part, in any action shall also be indemnified by the corporation. It shall be a defense available to the corporation to assert in the action that indemnification is prohibited by law or that the claimant has not met the standard of conduct, if any, required by current or future legislation or by current or future judicial or administrative decisions for indemnification (but, in the case of future legislation or decision, only to the extent that the legislation does not impose a more stringent standard of conduct than permitted prior to the legislation or decisions). The burden of proving this defense shall be on the corporation. Neither (a) the failure of the corporation (including its Board of Directors or any committee thereof, its independent legal counsel, and its shareholders) to have made a determination (prior to the commencement of the action) that indemnification of the claimant is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct, if any, nor (b) the fact that there has been an actual determination by the corporation (including its Board of Directors or any committee thereof, its independent legal counsel, and its shareholders) that the claimant has not met the applicable standard of conduct, shall be a defense to the action or create a presumption that the claimant has not met the applicable standard of conduct.

Section 5. Survival of Indemnification. The indemnification provided by this Article shall not be deemed exclusive of any rights to which those indemnified may now or hereafter be entitled under any bylaw, statute, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors or recommendation of counsel or otherwise, both as to actions in the person's capacity as a director, officer or employee and as to actions in another capacity while still a director, officer or employee, and shall continue as to an Indemnified Person who has ceased to be a director or officer or employee and shall inure to the benefit of the estate, heirs, personal representatives, beneficiaries, executors and administrators of such a person. All rights to indemnification and advances under this Article shall be deemed to be a contract between the corporation and each Indemnified Person who is an Indemnified Person at any time while this Article is in effect. Any repeal or modification of this Article or any repeal or modification of relevant provisions of the Florida Business Corporation Act or any other applicable laws shall not in any way diminish the rights to indemnification of such Indemnified Person or the obligations of the corporation arising hereunder for claims relating to matters occurring prior to the repeal or modification. The Board of Directors of the corporation shall have the authority, by resolution, to provide for indemnification of officers, employees or agents of the corporation and for such other indemnification of Indemnified Persons as it deems appropriate.

Section 6. Insurance. The corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director or officer of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise (including serving as a fiduciary of an employee benefit plan), against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article or the applicable provisions of the Florida Business Corporation Act.

Section 7. Savings Clause. If this Article or any portion is invalidated or held to be unenforceable on any ground by a court of competent jurisdiction, the corporation shall nevertheless indemnify each Indemnified Person described in Section 1 of this Article to the fullest extent permitted by all applicable portions of this Article that have not been invalidated or adjudicated unenforceable, and as permitted by applicable law.

ARTICLE VIII

PARTICIPATING POLICIES

Pursuant to section 628.361, Florida Statutes (1999), as amended from time to time, the corporation, by affirmative vote of its Board of Directors, may issue any or all of its policies with or without participation in profits, savings, or unabsorbed portions of premiums, may classify policies issued on a participating or non-participating basis, and may determine the right to participate and the extent of participation of any class or classes of policies.

ARTICLE IX

ACTION BY SHAREHOLDERS

Section 1. Shareholder Action.

If, and only if, the total number of shareholders of all classes of stock of the corporation is less than fifty (50), action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of shareholders may be taken without a meeting if the action is taken by persons who would be entitled to vote at a meeting having voting power to cast not less than the minimum number (or numbers, in the case of voting by groups) of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take the action at a meeting at which all shareholders entitled to vote were present and voted. Notwithstanding anything else set forth in this Article IX, the Bylaws or the Florida Business Corporation Act, if the total number of shareholders [of all classes of stock] of the corporation is equal to or greater than fifty (50), action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of shareholders may be taken without a meeting if the action is taken by all shareholders entitled to vote on the action. Any action by shareholders without a meeting must be evidenced by one or more written consents describing the action taken, signed by shareholders entitled to take action without a meeting and delivered to the corporation for inclusion in the minutes or filing with the corporate records. The corporation shall give written notice of actions taken as required by the Act.

Section 2. Special Meetings.

Special meetings of shareholders or a special meeting in lieu of the annual meeting of shareholders may be called at any time by the Board of Directors or President, as set forth in the Bylaws, and shall be called by the corporation, upon the written request of the holders of twenty-five (25%) of all votes entitled to be cast on the issue or issues proposed to be considered at the proposed special meeting.

Section 3. Changes of Control.

In addition to any affirmative vote required by law, these Articles of Incorporation or the Bylaws:

(a) any merger, consolidation or share exchange to which the corporation is a party and in which the holders of each class or series of voting securities of the corporation immediately prior to such merger, consolidation or share exchange shall immediately after such merger, consolidation or share exchange own less than fifty percent (50%) of each class and series of voting securities and securities convertible into or exchangeable for voting securities of the resulting or surviving corporation; or

(b) the adoption of any plan or proposal for the liquidation or dissolution of the corporation; or

(c) any reclassification of securities (including any reverse stock split) or recapitalization of the corporation; or

(d) the issuance by the corporation (in one transaction or a series of related transactions) of any securities of the corporation whereby the number of voting shares outstanding immediately after such issuance, plus the number of voting shares issuable as a result of the issuance (either by the conversion of securities issued or the exercise of rights and warrants issued), will not exceed by more than twenty percent (20%) the total number of voting shares of the corporation outstanding immediately before such issuance by the corporation; or

(e) any agreement, contract other arrangement providing for any one or more of the actions specified in the foregoing clauses (a) to (d) shall require the affirmative vote of the holders of voting shares of the corporation representing shares equal to at least two-thirds (2/3) of the each class and series of the issued and outstanding voting shares of the corporation entitled to vote for the election of directors. Such affirmative vote shall be required notwithstanding the fact that no vote may be required by law, or that a lesser percentage may be specified by law or any agreement with any national securities exchange or otherwise.

ARTICLE X

AMENDMENT OF THE BYLAWS

In furtherance and not in limitation of the powers confirmed by the laws of the State of Florida, the Board of Directors of the corporation is expressly authorized to adopt, amend, alter and repeal the bylaws of the corporation. Shareholders may adopt, amend, repeal or alter the bylaws of the corporation, including bylaws adopted by the Board of Directors, without approval of the Board of Directors only if such adoption, amendment, repeal or alteration is approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least eighty percent (80%) of the issued and outstanding shares of the capital stock of the corporation entitled to vote and voting on such matters.

ARTICLE XI

AMENDMENT OF THE ARTICLES

The corporation is permitted to and reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in these Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation, in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by statute, and all rights conferred on shareholders herein are granted subject to this reservation. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the provisions of this Article XI and the provisions of Articles VII and IX of these Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation may not be altered, amended or repealed in any respect unless such alteration, amendment or repeal is approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least eighty percent (80%) of the issued and outstanding shares entitled to vote and voting on such matter; provided, however, that for any alteration, amendment or repeal unanimously recommended by the Board of Directors, an affirmative vote of the holders of at least a the majority of the issued and outstanding shares entitled to vote and voting shall be sufficient for approval by the shareholders.

Certification

These Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation were duly adopted pursuant to Sections 607.1003 and 607.1007, Florida Statutes by the Board of Directors of the corporation on June 28, 2000 and by the written consent of the members of the Florida domestic mutual insurance company as of February 28, 2001. The number of votes cast in favor of these Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation, voting together as a class, was sufficient for the approval by such members.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the corporation has caused these Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation to be executed by its President and Secretary on this 1st day of MARCH, 2001.
