Attn: Leslie Sellers
Re: 59-3367537 Corporate Return

Dear Mrs. Sellers,

Per our conversation today by phone I am requesting you to please reinstate our corporation. My husband mailed our corporate return by certified mail to your office before the May date. Your office sent us a letter stating that they received our return but there was no check with it. My husband remembered putting the check in the return because he accidentally dropped the envelope in the drop box without the check and the post office lady had to get the envelope out and she placed the check in there and sealed the package. I called your office when I received the letter to tell them that and the lady that answered told me to just wait and see if my check cleared the bank and then call her back. Meanwhile I received another letter from your office with the check in it and it had not been signed. You requested that we sign it and return it. I then called and spoke to another person who said that we had gone pass the time allowed and I would need to pay the late fee of 600.00 before I could send it in. I waited to see if I could get the funds up to pay the late fee and forgot about it till I received the revocation letter. That is when I called you to see what I needed to do to reinstate. I have enclosed two checks for 2000 and 2001 as you requested. Next year I will go that it to the post office since he had such a bad time that day. ( I guess we all have bad days)

Thank you so much for your understanding and helping me get this current.

Sincerely,
Lynne Noack
