Dear Madame or Sir

This letter is pursuant to my telephone conversation this date with your agent "Carol". She instructed me to include with "1997 Profit Corporation Annual Report" an explanation of late filing.

We received your "second notice" on July 18, 1997 via forwarded mail from our former attorney's office. The attorney was our agent of record when the corporation was formed. We no longer use his services. I can only assume one of three scenarios. 1) The original mailing was not received by his office. 2) It was not forwarded by his office. 3) It was lost when forwarded.

I have been a resident of Florida since June 1, 1996 and would like to request the changes I have indicated on the completed form.

Per instructions from your agent, "Carol", I am forwarding our check in the amount of $165.00 and request your consideration of these extenuating circumstances.

Sincerely

Duer Burnett
President
