Dear Sir / Madam:

This is our second letter to you regarding our Uniform Business Report for the year 2001. The attached letter is a copy of the first letter which we sent to you in September. Said letter was enclosed with the form to file the report for this year and our check for $150. The letter explained the reason for us sending the $150 fee instead of $550. As per my conversation with Mr. Sean Toner from your office, it seems that your office received our payment but not our letter. He also stated the letter and payment/form were probably separated in your mail room. Now we have received a Notice of Administrative Resolution. Mr. Toner told us to resend the letter, which as I stated previously I have enclosed; he assured us that this would take care of this matter and would bring our corporation to an active status.

If you should have any questions or need us to provide any additional information, please contact us at the above number. Thank you in advance for your time.

Sincerely,

Ricardo E. Cespedes
Vice President
