Integrity Management Services Inc.

Dear Ma'm,

I am writing to you regards the above-mentioned corporation reinstatement for the following reason:

We are Government Food Service Contractors and we have been working in Puerto Rico full time for the past year feeding "Soldiers" that have been mobilized.

We do have a problem getting our mail down here very often. I did not receive the Annual Reports prior to the "Dissolution" one I am enclosing here with.

I did go on line some time back when I realized this and tried to complete the return via e-mail. I thought I had completed this transaction then.

We will not be back in Florida until year - end, thus the reason for my writing this explanation to you. Mail does get forwarded to me but for some reason we did not receive a lot of mail this year. We have been working in a remote area of the Island at Camp Santiago in Salinas and I am sure this is the reason.

We most certainly do want to retain our Corporate Standing with the State of Florida. My main office is the address that is on file and my family live in St. Petersburg and I am a California transplant the State of Florida.

My job is feeding our Men and Women in Uniform and I sorry if some administrative work got away from me for the Corporation.

I am enclosing the $150.00 hoping that you will waive the reinstatement fee for us.

I may be reach at my e-mail; desia@coqui.net or my fax which is area code 787- 812-4130 and our address here in Puerto Rico is above with our new office telephone and fax at the military base for which we are contracted for now.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,

Desia A. Ritson, President
