ARTICLE VII ELECTION OF BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The members of the board of directors of the corporation are elected by the shareholders using cumulative voting, where each shareholder will multiply the number of his shares by the number of directors to be elected and cast the resulting total of votes for one or more directors. The number of the directors to be elected is the number of the shareholders, unless the number of shareholders is more than 5 (five) in which case the number of directors to be elected will be 5 (five).

ARTICLE VIII POWERS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The board of directors have the general power to manage and direct the corporation. The board also has the powers to issue shares of stock, to set the price of shares, to adopt and to amend bylaws, to declare dividends, to elect and remove officers, and to repurchase shares.

ARTICLE IX REPURCHASE OF SHARES

The corporation has the first right to buy its shares. A shareholder, or the estate of a deceased shareholder, is under the obligation to offer his shares to the corporation from their book value when he decides to put them on sale. The board of directors shall decide whether to purchase the offered shares on behalf of the corporation, or to refuse the offer. In the case of refusal, the shareholder is free to transfer his shares to any third party. Repurchased shares may be held as treasury shares or restored to unissued status.

ARTICLE X CLOSE CORPORATION ELECTION

The corporation is a statutory close corporation. The status of the corporation may be changed by the board of directors.

ARTICLE XI OBLIGATIONS TO SHAREHOLDERS

The shareholders have pre-emptive purchasing rights to newly issued shares. The board of directors has to prepare annual financial statements, consisting of a balance sheet, income statement and cash flow statement and send a copy to each individual shareholder, in addition to other obligations dictated by the laws.

The undersigned incorporators have executed these Articles of Incorporation this Thursday of March 14th, 1996.
