ARTICLE ___ - RESTRICTIONS IMPOSED ON THE TRANSFER OF STOCK

Any stockholder, including the heirs, assigns, executors or administrators of a deceased stockholder, desiring to sell or transfer such stock owned by him or them, shall first offer it to the corporation through the Board of Directors in the following manner:

He shall notify the Directors of his desire to sell or transfer by notice in writing, which notice shall contain the price at which he is willing to sell or transfer, and the name of one arbitrator. The Directors shall within thirty (30) days thereafter either accept the offer, or by notice to him in writing, name a second arbitrator and those two shall name a third. It shall then be the duty of the arbitrators to ascertain the value of the stock, if any, and if any arbitrator shall neglect or refuse to appear at any meeting appointed by the arbitrators a majority may act in the absence of such arbitrator.

After the acceptance of the offer, or the report of the arbitrators as to the value of the stock, the Directors shall have thirty (30) days within which to purchase the same at such valuation, but if at the expiration of thirty (30) days, the corporation shall not have exercised the right to so purchase, the owner of the stock shall be at liberty to dispose of the same in any manner he sees fit.

In the event that the stockholders shall enter into a "Shareholders Agreement" which agreement provides for terms for sale or transfer of stock, and/or dissolution of the corporation, then, in that event, such terms and conditions as contained in such agreement shall control.

No shares of stock shall be sold or transferred on the books of the corporation until these provisions have been complied with, but the Board of Directors may in any particular instance waive the requirement, provided, however, if such waiver is as to a Shareholder Agreement as herein reference, then such waiver must be unanimous.
