REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF SURVIVING CORPORATION

The Surviving Corporation represents and warrants to the Disappearing Corporation that the statements contained in this Section are correct and complete as of the date of this Agreement and will be correct as of the Effective Date (as though made then and as though the Effective Date were substituted for the date of this Agreement throughout this Section) except as set forth in the disclosure statement prepared by the Surviving Corporation and submitted to the Disappearing Corporation as of the Effective Date (the "Disclosure Statement").

SECTION 5.1 Organization. The Surviving Corporation is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation, has all requisite corporate power to own, lease and operate its property and to carry on its business as now being conducted, and is duly qualified to do business and is in good standing as a foreign corporation in each jurisdiction in which the failure to be so qualified would have a Surviving Corporation Material Adverse Effect (as hereinafter defined).

When used in connection with the Surviving Corporation, the term "Surviving Corporation Material Adverse Effect" means any change, event or effect that is materially adverse to the business, assets (including intangible assets), liabilities, financial condition, operations or results of operations of the Surviving Corporation taken as a whole; provided, however, that the following shall not be deemed to constitute a "Surviving Corporation Material Adverse Effect": an adverse change in or effect on the financial condition, revenues or gross margins of the Surviving Corporation (or the direct consequences thereof) following the date of this Agreement to the extent attributable to the loss of any officer or key employee of the Surviving Corporation which is directly and primarily attributable to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

The Surviving Corporation does not directly or indirectly own any equity or similar interest in, or any interest convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for any such entity or similar interest in, any corporation, limited liability company, partnership, joint venture or other business association or entity, excluding securities of any publicly traded company held for investment by the Surviving Corporation and comprising less than five percent (5%) of the outstanding stock of such company.

SECTION 5.2 Authority; No Conflict; Required Filings and Consents.

(a) The Surviving Corporation has all requisite corporate power and authority to enter into this Agreement and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. (b) The execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Surviving Corporation does not, and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby will not (i) conflict with, or result in, any violation or breach of any provision of the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws of the Surviving Corporation (in each case as heretofore amended), (ii) result in any violation or breach of, or constitute (with or without notice or lapse of time, or both) a default (or give rise to a right of termination, cancellation or acceleration of any obligation or loss of any benefit) under any of the terms, conditions or provisions of any note, bond, mortgage, indenture, lease, contract or other agreement, instrument or obligation to which the Surviving Corporation is a party or by which any of its properties or assets may be bound, or (iii) conflict with or violate any permit, concession, franchise, license, judgment, order, decree, statute, law, ordinance, rule or regulation applicable to the Surviving Corporation on its properties or assets.

(c) No consent, approval, order or authorization of, or registration, declaration or filing with, any court, administrative agency, commission or other governmental authority or instrumentality ("Governmental Entity") is required by or with respect to the Surviving Corporation in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, except for the filing of the Certificate of Merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware in accordance with the DGCL.

SECTION 5.3 Financial Statements. The Surviving Corporation will deliver the consolidated audit for the fiscal year ended 1999 promptly after completion. All financial statements delivered to the Disappearing Corporation (including the related notes and schedules) have been and shall be prepared in accordance with GAAP applied on a consistent basis throughout the periods covered thereby and present fairly, in all material respects, the financial condition of the Surviving Corporation as of the indicated dates and the results of operations of the Surviving Corporation for the periods, provided, however, that the interim statements are subject to normal year-end adjustments and need not include footnotes which would be included in year end statements pursuant to GAAP.

H99000007874 3

SECTION 5.4 Events Subsequent to Most Recent Fiscal Quarter. Since the end of the Most Recent Fiscal Quarter, there has not been any material adverse change in the assets, liabilities, business, financial condition, operations, results of operations, or future prospectus of the Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries taken as a whole.

SECTION 5.5 Absence of Undisclosed Liabilities. The Surviving Corporation does not have any liabilities, either accrued or contingent (whether or not required to be reflected in financial statements, including the notes thereto, in accordance with GAAP), and whether due or to become due, which individually or in the aggregate, are or would be reasonably likely to have a Surviving Corporation Material Adverse Effect, other than (i) liabilities reflected in the unaudited consolidated balance sheet of the Surviving Corporation as of March 15, 1999 (the "Surviving Corporation Balance Sheet"), and (ii) normal or recurring liabilities incurred since 1997, in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practices.

SECTION 5.6 Absence of Certain Changes or Events. Since the date of the Surviving Corporation Balance Sheet, the Surviving Corporation has conducted its business only in the ordinary course, in a manner consistent with past practice, and there has not been (i) any Surviving Corporation Material Adverse Effect; (ii) any damage, destruction or loss (whether or not covered by insurance) with respect to the Surviving Corporation having a Surviving Corporation Material Adverse Effect; (iii) any material change by the Surviving Corporation in its accounting methods, principles or practices to which the Disappearing Corporation has not previously consented in writing; (iv) any revaluation by the Surviving Corporation of any of its assets having a Surviving Corporation Material Adverse Effect, including writing off notes or accounts receivable, other than in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice, unless the Disappearing Corporation has previously consented in writing thereto; or (v) any other action or event that would have required the consent of the Disappearing Corporation had such action or event occurred after the date of this Agreement and that could reasonably be expected to result in a Surviving Corporation Material Adverse Effect.

SECTION 5.7 Taxes.

(a) For purposes of this Agreement, a "Tax" or, collectively, "Taxes" means any and all material federal, state, local and foreign taxes, assessments and other governmental charges, duties, impositions and liabilities, including taxes based upon or measured by gross receipts, income, profits, sales, use and occupation, and value added, ad valorem, transfer, franchise, withholding, payroll, recapture, employment, excise and property taxes, together with all interest, penalties and additions imposed with respect to such amounts and any obligations under any agreements or arrangements with any other person with respect to such amounts and including any liability for taxes of a predecessor entity.

(c) The Surviving Corporation as of the Effective Date (i) will have paid all Taxes it is required to pay prior to the Effective Date, and (ii) will have withheld with respect to its employees all federal and state income taxes, FICA, FUTA and other Taxes required to be withheld, except where any failure to make such payment or withholding would not be reasonably likely to have a Surviving Corporation Material Adverse Effect.

(d) There is no Tax deficiency outstanding, proposed or assessed against the Surviving Corporation that is not reflected as a liability on the Surviving Corporation Balance Sheet nor has the Surviving Corporation executed any waiver of any statute of limitations on or extending the period for the assessment or collection of any Tax (other than Taxes in the ordinary course of business in an amount that is not material to the Surviving Corporation taken together as a whole).

(e) The Surviving Corporation has no material liability for unpaid Taxes that has not been accrued for or reserved on the Surviving Corporation Balance Sheet, whether asserted or unasserted, contingent or otherwise.

SECTION 5.8 Properties. The Surviving Corporation is not a party to any real property leases.

SECTION 5.9 Agreements, Contracts and Commitments. The Surviving Corporation has not breached, or received in writing any claim or threat that it has breached, any of the terms or conditions of any agreement, contract or commitment with respect to agreements, contracts or commitments entered into by the Surviving Corporation ("Surviving Corporation Material Contracts"); in such a manner as would permit any other party to cancel or terminate the same or would permit any other party to collect material damages from the Surviving Corporation under any Surviving Corporation Material Contract. Each Surviving Corporation Material Contract that has not expired or been terminated in accordance with its terms is in full force and effect and is not subject to any material default thereunder of which the Surviving Corporation is aware by any party obligated to the Surviving Corporation pursuant to a Surviving Corporation Material Contract. To the knowledge of the Surviving Corporation, none of the parties to the Surviving Corporation Material Contracts have terminated, or in any way expressed an intent to materially reduce or terminate the amount of business with the Surviving Corporation in the future.

SECTION 5.13 Compliance with Laws. The Surviving Corporation has complied in all material respects with all applicable federal, state, local and foreign statutes, laws and regulations, and is not in violation of, and has not received any notices of violation with respect to, any such statute, law or regulation, with respect to the conduct of its business or the ownership or operation of its business, including the federal Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and all United States statutes, laws and regulations as from time to time govern the license and delivery of technology and products abroad by persons subject to the jurisdiction of the United States.

SECTION 5.14 Pooling of Interests. Neither the Surviving Corporation nor, to its knowledge, any of its affiliates has, through the date of this Agreement, taken or agreed to take any action which could affect the ability of the Disappearing Corporation to account for the business combination to be effected by the Merger as a pooling of interests.

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF DISAPPEARING CORPORATION

SECTION 6.1 Organization. The Disappearing Corporation is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation, has all requisite corporate power to own, lease and operate its property and to carry on its business as now being conducted, and is duly qualified to do business and is in good standing as a foreign corporation in each jurisdiction in which the failure to be so qualified would have a Disappearing Corporation Material Adverse Effect.

When used in connection with the Disappearing Corporation the term "Disappearing Corporation Material Adverse Effect" means any change, event or effect that is materially adverse to the business, assets (including intangible assets), liabilities, financial condition, operations or results of operations of the Disappearing Corporation; provided, however, that the following shall not be deemed to constitute a "Disappearing Corporation Material Adverse Effect": (i) an adverse change in or effect on the financial condition, revenues or gross margins of the Disappearing Corporation (or the direct consequences thereof) following the date of this Agreement to the extent attributable to (A) a delay of, reduction in or cancellation or change in the terms of product licenses by customers of the Disappearing Corporation, (B) a slowdown in the activity of the Disappearing Corporation's sales organization, or (C) the loss of any officer or key employee of the Disappearing Corporation which is directly and primarily attributable to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

The Disappearing Corporation does not own any equity or similar interest in, or any interest convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for any such entity or similar interest in, any corporation, limited liability company, partnership, joint venture or other business association or entity, excluding securities of any publicly traded company held for investment by the Disappearing Corporation and comprising less than five percent (5%) of the outstanding stock of such company.

SECTION 6.2 Authority; No conflict; Required Filings and Consents.

(a) The Disappearing Corporation has all requisite corporate power and authority to enter into this Agreement and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. The execution and delivery of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate and stockholder action on the part of the Disappearing Corporation, subject only (in the case of this Agreement and certain of the transactions contemplated hereby) to the approval of the Merger by the Disappearing Corporation and the Surviving Corporation's stockholders in accordance with the FBCA and DGCL, respectively. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Disappearing Corporation and constitutes the valid and binding obligations of the Disappearing Corporation, enforceable in accordance with their respective terms.

(b) The execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Disappearing Corporation does not, and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby will not (i) conflict with, or result in any violation or breach of any provision of the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws of the Disappearing Corporation (in each case as heretofore amended), (ii) result in any violation or breach of, or constitute (with or without notice or lapse of time, or both) a default (or give rise to a right of termination, cancellation or acceleration of any obligation or loss of any benefit) under any of the terms, conditions or provisions of any note, bond, mortgage, indenture, lease, contract or other agreement, instrument or obligation to which the Disappearing Corporation is a party or by which any of them or any of their respective properties or assets may be bound, or (iii) conflict with or violate any permit, concession, franchise, license, judgment, order, decree, statute, law, ordinance, rule or regulation applicable to the Disappearing Corporation or any of its Subsidiaries, if any, or any of their respective properties or assets.

(c) No consent, approval, order or authorization of, or registration, declaration or filing with, any Governmental Entity is required by or with respect to the Disappearing Corporation in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, except for the filing of the Certificate of Merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Florida in accordance with the FBCA.

SECTION 6.3 Financial Statements. The Disappearing Corporation will provide, as soon as practicable, the Surviving Corporation with financial statements acceptable to Disappearing Corporation, in its sole discretion, for the fiscal years ended 1997 and 1998, audited by Caruso & Caruso, C.P.A., independent certified public accountants, and financial statements for the period from January 1, 1999 to the Effective Date of the Merger, audited by Caruso & Caruso, C.P.A. The Disappearing Corporation will deliver the consolidated audit for the fiscal year ended 1999 promptly after completion. All financial statements delivered to the Surviving Corporation (including the related notes and schedules) have been and shall be prepared in accordance with GAAP applied on a consistent basis throughout the periods covered thereby and present fairly, in all material respects, the financial condition of the Disappearing Corporation for the periods, provided, however, that the interim statements are subject to normal year-end adjustments and need not include footnotes which would be included in year-end statements pursuant to GAAP.

SECTION 6.4 Absence of Undisclosed Liabilities. The Disappearing Corporation does not have any liabilities, either accrued or contingent (whether or not required to be reflected in financial statements, including the notes thereto, in accordance with GAAP), and whether due or to become due, which individually or in the aggregate, are or would be reasonably likely to have a Disappearing Corporation Material Adverse Effect, other than (i) liabilities reflected in the unaudited consolidated balance sheet of the Disappearing Corporation as of December 31, 1998 ("Disappearing Corporation Balance Sheet"), and (ii) normal or recurring liabilities incurred since 1997, in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practices.

SECTION 6.5 Absence of Certain Changes or Events. Since the date of the Disappearing Corporation Balance Sheet, the Disappearing Corporation has conducted its businesses only in the ordinary course, in a manner consistent with past practice, and there has not been (i) any Disappearing Corporation Material Adverse Effect; (ii) any damage, destruction or loss (whether or not covered by insurance) with respect to the Disappearing Corporation having a Disappearing Corporation Material Adverse Effect; (iii) any material change by the Disappearing Corporation in its accounting methods, principles or practices to which the Surviving Corporation has not previously consented in writing; (iv) any revaluation by the Disappearing Corporation of any of its assets having a Disappearing Corporation Material Adverse Effect, including writing off notes or accounts receivable, other than in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice, unless the Surviving Corporation has previously consented in writing thereto; or (v) any other action or event that would have required the consent of the Surviving Corporation had such action or event occurred after the date of this Agreement and that could reasonably be expected to result in a Disappearing Corporation Material Adverse Effect.

SECTION 6.6 Taxes.

(a) The Disappearing Corporation has accurately prepared and timely filed all material federal, state, local and foreign returns, estimates, information statements and reports required to be filed at or before the Effective Date ("Returns") relating to any and all Taxes concerning or attributable to the Disappearing Corporation or any of its Subsidiaries, if any, or to their operations, and such Returns are true and correct in all material respects.

(b) The Disappearing Corporation as of the Effective Date (i) will have paid all Taxes it is required to pay prior to the Effective Date, and (ii) will have withheld with respect to its employees all federal and state income taxes, FICA, FUTA and other Taxes required to be withheld, except where any failure to make such payment or withholding would not be reasonably likely to have a Disappearing Corporation Material Adverse Effect.

H99000007874 3

(c) There is no Tax deficiency outstanding, proposed or assessed against the Disappearing Corporation that is not reflected as a liability on the Disappearing Corporation Balance Sheet nor has the Disappearing Corporation executed any waiver of any statute of limitations on or extending the period for the assessment or collection of any Tax (other than Taxes in the ordinary course of business in an amount that is not material to the Disappearing Corporation.)

(d) The Disappearing Corporation has no material liability for unpaid Taxes that has not been accrued for or reserved on the Disappearing Corporation Balance Sheet, whether asserted or unasserted, contingent or otherwise.

SECTION 6.7 Properties. All material real property leases ("Material Lease(s)") of the Disappearing Corporation are in good standing, valid and effective in accordance with their respective terms, and the Disappearing Corporation is not in default under any of such leases, except where the lack of such good standing, validity or effectiveness or the existence of such default would not be reasonably likely to have a Disappearing Corporation Material Adverse Effect.

SECTION 6.8 Agreements, Contracts and Commitments. The Disappearing Corporation has not breached, or received in writing any claim or threat that it has breached, any of the terms or conditions of any agreement, contract or commitment with respect to agreements, contracts or commitments entered into by the Disappearing Corporation ("Disappearing Corporation Material Contracts"), in such a manner as would permit any other party to cancel or terminate the same or would permit any other party to collect material damages from the Disappearing Corporation under any Disappearing Corporation Material contract. Each Disappearing Corporation Material Contract that has not expired or been terminated in accordance with its terms is in full force and effect and is not subject to any material default thereunder of which the Disappearing Corporation is aware by any party obligated to the Disappearing Corporation pursuant to such Disappearing Corporation Material contract. To the knowledge of the Disappearing Corporation, none of the parties to the Disappearing Corporation Material Contracts have terminated, or in any way expressed an intent to materially reduce or terminate the amount of business with the Disappearing Corporation in the future.

SECTION 6.9 Litigation. With the exception of any matters specified in Exhibit 6.8 hereto, there is no action, suit or proceeding, claim, arbitration or investigation against the Disappearing Corporation pending or as to which the Disappearing Corporation has received any notice of assertion, which, if decided adversely to the Disappearing Corporation would be reasonably expected to have a Disappearing Corporation Material Adverse Effect, or a material adverse effect on the ability of the Disappearing Corporation to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

SECTION 6.10 Compliance with Laws. The Disappearing Corporation has complied in all material respects with all applicable federal, state, local and foreign statutes, laws and regulations, and is not in violation of, and has not received any notices of violation with respect to, any such statute, law or regulation, with respect to the conduct of its business or the ownership or operation of its business, including the federal Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and all United States statutes, laws and regulations as from time to time govern the license and delivery of technology and products abroad by persons subject to the jurisdiction of the United States.

SECTION 6.11 Pooling of Interests. Neither the Disappearing Corporation nor, to its knowledge, any of its affiliates has, through the date of this Agreement, taken or agreed to take any action which could affect the ability of the Surviving Corporation to account for the business combination to be effected by the Merger as a pooling of interests.

SECTION 6.12 Capitalization. The authorized capital stock of the Disappearing Corporation consists of Two Million (2,000,000) shares of common stock, $.001 par value, of which One Million Five Hundred Eighty Six Thousand Six Hundred Twenty Five (1,586,625) shares are validly issued and outstanding, fully paid and nonassessable. As of the date hereof, there are no bonds, debentures, notes or other indebtedness issued or outstanding having voting rights under ordinary circumstances. With the exception of the warrants listed in Exhibit 6.11 hereto, there are no options, warrants, calls, or other rights, agreements or commitments presently outstanding obligating the Disappearing Corporation or any Disappearing Corporation shareholder to issue, deliver, or sell shares of its capital stock, or obligating the Disappearing Corporation or any Disappearing Corporation shareholder to grant, extend or enter into any such option, warrant, call or other such right, agreement or commitment.

SECTION 6.13 Year 2000 Compliance. The Disappearing Corporation has undertaken all appropriate remediation efforts to insure that all systems of the Disappearing Corporation are capable of calculating dates into the year 2000 and beyond, including any leap years ("Year 2000 Compliance"). Further, to the best of the Disappearing Corporation's knowledge after specific inquiry of all of its material suppliers and vendors, the Disappearing Corporation will not suffer a loss from interruption or cessation of business operations as a result of such suppliers, vendors or landlords failing to provide materials, labor or supplies for the operation of the Disappearing Corporation as a result of such suppliers or vendors not having Year 2000 Capabilities.

ARTICLE 7

CONDUCT OF BUSINESS

SECTION 7.1 Covenants of the Constituent Corporations.

(a) Except as expressly contemplated by this Agreement, during the period from the date of this Agreement and continuing until the earlier of the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.4 or the Effective Date, each Constituent Corporation agrees, except to the extent that the Constituent Corporations shall otherwise consent in writing (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed), to carry on its business in the usual, regular and ordinary course in substantially the same manner as previously conducted, to pay its debts and taxes when due, subject to good faith disputes over such debts or taxes, to pay or perform its other obligations when due, and to use all reasonable efforts consistent with past practices and policies to preserve intact its present business organization, keep available the services of its present officers and key employees and preserve its relationships with customers, suppliers, distributors, licensors, licensees and others having business dealings with each Constituent Corporation.

(b) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, neither Constituent Corporation shall, without prior written consent of the other Constituent Corporation (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed):

(iii) issue, deliver or sell or authorize or propose the issuance, delivery or sale of, any shares of its capital stock or securities convertible into shares of its capital stock, or subscriptions, rights, warrants or options to acquire, or other agreements or commitments of any character obligating it to issue any such shares or other convertible securities;

(iv) acquire or agree to acquire by merging or consolidating with, or by purchasing a substantial portion of the assets of, or by any other manner, any business or any corporation, partnership or other business organization or division, except as set forth in Exhibit 7.1 hereto;

(v) sell, lease, license or otherwise dispose of any of its properties or assets which are material, individually or in the aggregate, to the business of the Constituent Corporations and its Subsidiaries, if any, taken as a whole, except for transactions entered into in the ordinary course of the Constituent Corporations' business consistent with past practice;

(vi) take any action to (1) increase or agree to increase the compensation payable or to become payable to its officers or employees, except for increases in salary or wages of employees in accordance with agreements entered into before the date of this Agreement or otherwise in the ordinary course of the Constituent Corporations' business consistent with past practices, (2) grant any additional severance or termination pay to, or enter into any employment or severance agreements with, officers, (3) grant any severance or termination pay to, or enter into any employment or severance agreement, with any employee, except in accordance with agreements entered into before the date of this Agreement or otherwise in the ordinary course of the Constituent Corporations' business consistent with past practices, (4) enter into any collective bargaining agreement, or (5) establish, adopt, enter into or amend in any material respect any bonus, profit sharing, thrift, compensation, stock option, restricted stock, pension, retirement, deferred compensation, employment, termination, severance or other plan, trust, fund, policy or arrangement for the benefit of any directors, officers or employees;

(viii) take, or agree in writing or otherwise to take, any of the actions described in the foregoing clauses (i) through (vii), or any action which is reasonably likely to make any of the Constituent Corporations' representations or warranties contained in this Agreement untrue or incorrect in any material respect on the date made (to the extent so limited) or as of the Effective Time.

ARTICLE 8

(a) The Disappearing Corporation agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Surviving Corporation from and against liability, damage, cost or expense, including reasonable attorneys' fees incurred as a result of breach by the Disappearing Corporation of any material representation, warranty, agreement or covenant of the Disappearing Corporation hereunder or contained in any agreement executed in connection herewith.

If the final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction declares that any term or provision hereof is invalid or unenforceable, the Parties agree that the court making the termination of invalidity or unenforceability shall have the power to reduce the scope, duration, or area of the term or provision, to delete specific words or phrases, or to replace any invalid or unenforceable term or provision with a term or provision that is valid and enforceable and that comes closest to expressing the intention of the invalid or unenforceable term or provision, and this Agreement shall be enforceable as so modified after the expiration of the time within which the judgment may be appealed.

Gentlemen:

In connection with the issuance to the undersigned by you, in connection with the Plan of Merger of Centrack into Hudson Valley, of _____ shares of your common stock, par value of $_____ per share (the "Shares"), the undersigned agrees and represents to you as follows in order to induce you to cause certificates for the Shares to be issued to the undersigned:
