Dear Sir / Madam,

On contacting your office I was told that there was a prior notice that was sent to my address, that I have apparently not received. I have searched all my documents and have been unable to locate such a notice. I am assuming that it may have been sent to my agent's new address in Jacksonville or incorrectly thrown out ~~with~~ amidst the numerous advertising flyers we receive each day. Being my company's first year of business, I may not have correctly recognized this important document. Barring these reasons, I have no other idea why I did not receive this report (I am also assuming it looked like the second.) In any event, one of your representatives at (904) 488-9000 has instructed me to send in $165.00 and I will so comply.

Yours Sincerely
Charles S. Austin
