Dear Sirs:

This year we never received your first notice of the UBR fee due by May 1st. Apparently it was lost in the mail. We've had a lot of trouble with the mail lately, not getting delivered.

Consequently, the enclosed notice (with the penalty) was the first one we have seen this year. Enclosed is our check for the original $150 fee. We will make a note to call you if we do not receive the form by Feb. 1st next year.

We called your office and they requested that we send you a letter, and payment of the original $150 filing fee.

We have always paid this fee on time. You may check your records for past years for our company. We are sorry for the delay, but the Post Office is to blame here, not us.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

John LaRosa, Pres.
