ARTICLE XV TRANSFER OF STOCK

No shareholder may sell, transfer, pledge, assign or otherwise in anyway dispose of or encumber any of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation owned by such shareholders, except in accordance with the following procedures, limitations and restrictions:

If the offer to sell is rejected, or is not accepted by the corporation within thirty (30) days after the corporation receives written notice from the shareholder of his desire to sell, then any existing shareholder shall have an additional fifteen (15) days after the corporation's express or implied rejection in which to purchase the offered stock. B. In the event any shareholder wishes to dispose of his stock in the corporation during his lifetime and does not have a bonafide offer to purchase, the shareholder shall give written notice of his desire to sell and the corporation shall have the first option to purchase such stock at the same price as is stated in paragraph A above.
