otherwise provided by its Certificate of Incorporation or by law, have power to:

1. sue or be sued and appear and defend in all actions and proceedings in its corporate name to the same extent as a natural person;
2. adopt and use a common corporate seal and
alter the same;
3. appoint such officers and agents as its affairs shall require and allow them suitable compensation;

4. adopt, change, amend and repeal by-laws not inconsistent with the law of this state or its Certificate of Incorporation for the exercise of its corporate powers the management, regulation, and government of its affairs and property, the transfer on its records of its stock or other evidences of interest or membership, and the calling and holding of meetings of its stockholders;

5. increase or diminish, by vote of its stockholders, shareholders, or members, cast as the by-laws may direct, the number of directors, managers, or trustees, provided that the number shall never be less than one;

6. make and enter into all contracts necessary and proper for the conduct of its business;

7. (a) conduct business, have one or more offices in and by, hold, mortgage, sell, convey, lease, or otherwise dispose of real and personal property, in this state and in any other several states, territories, possessions, and dependencies of the United States, the District of Columbia, and in foreign countries;

(b) purchase the corporate assets of any other corporation and engage in the same character of business;

(c) acquire, enjoy, utilize, and dispose of patents, copyrights, and trademarks, and any licenses or other rights of interests thereunder or therein;

(d) take, hold, sell, and convey such property as may be necessary in order to obtain or secure payment of any indebtedness or liability to it;

8. (a) guarantee, endorse, purchase, hold, sell, transfer, mortgage, pledge, or otherwise dispose of the shares of the capital stock of, or any bonds, securities, or other evidences of indebtedness created by any other corporation of this state or any other state or government; while owner of such stocks to exercise all the rights, powers, and privileges of ownership, including the right to vote such stock;

(b) purchase, hold, sell, and transfer shares of its own capital stock, provided that no corporation shall purchase any of its own capital stock except from the surplus of its assets over its liabilities, including capital. Shares of its own capital stock owned by the corporation shall not be voted directly or indirectly, or counted as outstanding for the purposes of any stockholders' quorum or vote;

9. do all and everything necessary and proper for the accomplishment of the objectives enumerated in its Certificate of Incorporation or necessary or incidental to the benefit and protection of the corporation, and to carry on any lawful business necessary or incidental to the attainment of the objectives of the corporation whether or not such business is similar in nature to the objectives enumerated in its Certificate of Incorporation;

10. (a) contract debts and borrow money at such rates of interest not to exceed the lawful rate and upon such terms as it or its Board of Directors may deem necessary or expedient and shall authorize or agree upon, issue and sell or pledge bonds, debentures, notes and other evidences of indebtedness, whether secured or unsecured, and execute such mortgages, or other instruments upon or encumbering its property or credit to secure the payment of money borrowed or owing by it, as occasion may require and the Board of Directors deems expedient;

(b) provisions may be made in such instrument for transferring corporate property of every kind and nature then belonging to or thereafter acquired by such corporation, as security for any bonds, notes, debentures, or other evidences of indebtedness issued or debts or sums of money owing by said corporation;

(c) in case of the sale of any property by virtue of any such instrument or of any foreclosure, the party acquiring the title shall have the same rights, privileges, grants, franchises, immunities and advantages, in and by such instrument enumerated or conveyed, as belonging to and were enjoyed by the corporation executing the instrument or contracting the debt;

11. (a) limit and regulate the right of stockholders to transfer their stock and provide terms and limitations of stock;
