Dear Andy:

Pursuant to our conversation today, enclosed please find a letter dated June 22, 2000 sent by your office and a copy of my UBR form.

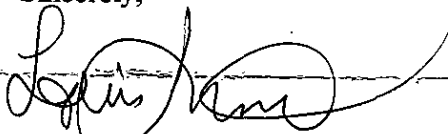

As we discussed, my corporate address had changed (please see attached) and I had made previous attempts to correct it with your office. However, the notice for filing annual report/uniform business report was still sent to my old address. Consequently, I did not receive the notice until well after May 1, 2000 and was not able to forward my check and report until June 16, 2000.

I checked with my bank and your office has cashed the $150 check I forwarded on June 16, 2000. You indicated that I would not be liable for the additional $400 late filing penalty due to the above-referenced address change conflict. Please clear this matter up as we discussed.

Thanks again for your assistance and cooperation.

Please feel free to call me with any questions at 954-572-6287.

Sincerely,

Louis Sparano
President
