Dear Mr. Brumbley,

I am writing this letter per your request. I had previously called your office and was told that if I simply wrote on my annual report filing first invoice there would be no problem.

As I explained to them that day, I am a new corporation and did not receive the first notice for the filing date. So when I received the second notice I became alarmed at the late fee. I explained then that as a new corporation I did not know the dates that the annual report must be filed by. I certainly do now and will assure you this will not happen again.

I hope this letter will let you know that I sincerely had not seen the first invoice and was unaware that the annual report was late. I appreciate all the help your office has been to me and my corporation.

Sincerely,

Laurel K. Offchinik-Ferro
