Dear Mr. Shwartz:

This letter is in response to your request for permission to use the word "lottery" in the corporate name "American Greencard Lottery Assistance, Inc." This corporation would provide assistance to foreign citizens in preparing applications for inclusion in the United States' diversity immigration visa program, known informally as the "visa lottery."

Your request is approved. Use of the word "lottery" in connection with the diversity immigration visa program clearly would be unrelated to The Florida Lottery and its operations and would not be misleading or cause confusion among lottery players. Any change in the nature of your business could result in revocation of this approval.

If you need additional information or assistance, please feel free to contact us.

Sincerely,

Louisa H. Warren
