Re: Doc #P961000036143

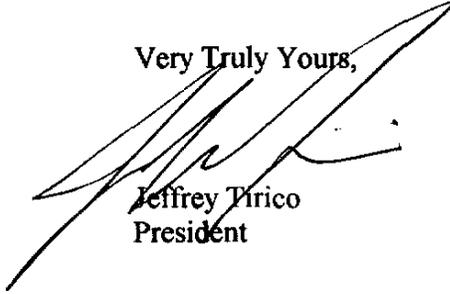

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is in reference to the annual return for East Coast Marketing Services, Inc. Obviously, the return is overdue. I was told over the phone that if I sent the return in with an explanation, the late fee may be waved.

East Coast Marketing recently moved from Vero Beach, to Melbourne, FL. We did not receive the notice about our return being due. I am in the middle of changing accountants and, unfortunately, I just did not know enough to file the return, until another incident occurred and I went through all the old files to see what I missed. I realize that ignorance is no excuse, however, this was not done with the intent of not filing.

Please advise as to what action you decide to take. The above address and phone number are current.

Very Truly Yours,

Jeffrey Tirico
President
