ARTICLE XI
INTERESTED OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS' INDEMNIFICATION

No contract or other transaction between this corporation and any other corporation, in the absence of fraud, shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that any one or more of the directors of this corporation is or are interested in, or is a director or officer, or are directors or officers of such corporation, and any director or directors, individually or jointly, may be a party or parties to, or may be interested in any such contract or transaction of this corporation, or in which this corporation is interested, and no contract, act or transaction of this corporation, with any person or persons, firms or corporations, in the absence of fraud, shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that any director or directors of this corporation is a party to or interested in such contract, act or transaction, or in any way connected with such person or persons, firm or corporation. Each and every person who may become a director of this corporation is hereby relieved from any liability except for fraud, that might otherwise exist from this contracting with this corporation, in which he may be in any way interested. Any Director of this corporation may vote upon any contract or other transaction between this corporation and any subsidiary or controlled corporation without regard to the fact that he is also a director of such subsidiary or controlled corporation. Any person made a party to any action, suit or proceeding relating to the performance by him of his duties as a director, officer, or employee of this corporation, shall be indemnified by the corporation against the reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and necessarily incurred by him in connection with any appeal therein, except in relation to matters as to which it shall be adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding that such officer, director or employee is liable for willful misconduct in the performance of his duties. Such right of indemnification shall not be deemed exclusive of any other right to which such director, officer or employee may be entitled by law.
