Gentlemen:

Re: Scott Anthony Incorporation

I have just been hired by the above-named Taxpayer and are filing this initial 1997 Profit Corporation Annual Report which, we admit is late. The Taxpayer was unaware that anything needed to be done as he figured that the 1997 report needed to be filed after 1997 as a tax-return does.

More important...Scott Levine's wife (he is the shareholder of the company) is on social-security disability and her illness created many health problems for the entire family during the period that this report should have been filed. Mr. Levine is the sole-supporter of the family and he did not have any income in 1977 as he was trying to get the company "going." Mrs. Levine was having serious medical problems (which can be documented). If necessary...I can send you medical reports to this effect if you wish.

We ask that you waive the penalty fee as the disregard of rules was not done intentionally and there were medical reasons for the delay.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Very truly yours,

Dennis H. Stamm
