To Whom It May Concern:

Enclosed please find a check from Practice Solutions, Inc. in the amount of $165.00 for the standard profit corporation annual report filing fee. Practice Solutions, Inc. is aware that this annual report and check will be received after the May 1st due date and that the fee for late applications is $550.00; however, Practice Solutions feels that it should not have to pay this fine, as this office did not receive the forms from your office until the end of June/beginning of July. The reasons for the delay in delivery/receipt are unknown, but they are in no way the fault of this corporation. It does not seem fair, therefore, that Practice Solutions, Inc. should be fined for a circumstance which it could not control. We hope that you will understand our predicament and accept the enclosed check. This letter and the proffered amount contained herein were both gestures suggested to us by one of your service representatives, and we hope you will find them satisfactory.

Very truly yours,

PRACTICE SOLUTIONS, INC.
