I'm not sure who will be reading this letter first in your offices, but I need your help with a very big favor. Can I please pay the original filing fee of $150 even though this is quite late? Before you start laughing at my request, please allow me to explain.

I have two small corporations, both of which I am just about the only employee. (I do Ghost Tours) Over the last year I was going through a divorce and the courts ruled that the corporations were only half mine... and half my wife's. To make a long story short, she took over running the corporations and I was out of the picture. In late June I was able to buy her out and took over managing again.

Getting back in the office was even scarier than the ghosts on our tours. Among the many things neglected over the year I was absent were the Uniform Business Reports. The May 1st deadline had passed and I did not have $1100 to file late. (the attorneys and the ex made sure of that. ☺) I called your office to see if any exceptions could be made, and they said I should put something in writing, so here I am now.

If you check my track record, you will see I have always been timely in paying. I am including checks for the minimum amount of $150 per corporation, as well as copies of some of my court documents, which will verify my situation. If there is any other information I can provide, or if you have any questions, I can be reached at 305-304-2428.

I realize that I am asking a lot, but sure hope you can help me out.

Thank you for taking the time to read this.

Sincerely,

David Sloan
