Dear Div. of Corporations,

I am writing this letter to explain to you that my filing has been sent a few days after the deadline. I called your office and spoke to a representative there who said that I may send in the regular fee right away and that should be acceptable. Let me know if there is any problem. I am slightly behind on everything including this payment as I have recently had a baby. I have not been doing much business lately because of the new baby. I am hoping that I will not need to pay a late fee but if I am too late please let me know. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Christine L. Bostwick
