Powers of Board of Directors

To make, adopt, alter, amend and repeal the by-laws. To set apart out of any of the funds of the Corporation available for dividends a reserve, or reserves, for any proper purpose and to alter, or abolish, any such reserves, to authorize and cause to be executed mortgages and liens upon the property and franchises of this Corporation.

To designate by resolution passed by a majority of the whole board one or more committees, each to consist of one or more Directors, which committees, to the extent provided in such resolutions or in the by-laws of the Corporation and have power to authorize the seal of the Corporation to be affixed to all papers which require it.

From time to time determine whether and to what extent, at what times and places, and under what conditions and regulations the books and accounts of this Corporation, or any of them, other than the stock ledger shall be open to the inspection of the stockholders, and no stockholders shall have any right to inspect any account, book, or documents of the Corporation, except as conferred by law or authorized by resolution of the Directors or of the stockholders.

To sell, lease, or exchange all of its property or assets, including its good will and its corporate franchises, upon such terms and conditions and for such consideration which may be in whole or in part shares of stock in, and/or securities of, any other Corporation, when and as authorized by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the stock issued and outstanding having voting power given at a stockholders' meeting duly called for what purpose, or when authorized by written consent of the holders of a majority of the voting stock issued and outstanding.

This Corporation may, in its by-laws, convey powers additional to the foregoing upon the Directors in addition to the powers and authorities expressly conferred upon them by law.

If the by-laws so provide, the stockholders and Directors shall have the power to hold their meetings, to have an office or offices and to keep the books of this Corporation (subject to the provisions of the Statute) outside of the State of Florida as such places as may from time to time be designated by the by-laws or resolution of the Directors.

ARTICLE XI

Special Provisions

The following special provisions shall govern this Corporation:

(A) The time and place of the annual stockholders' meeting shall be fixed and provided for in the by-laws, and notices of the same shall be given in one of the methods provided by law.

Any stockholder may waive notice of the time, place, and purpose of any meeting either before, at, or after such meeting.

(B) There shall be a president of the Corporation, who shall also be a Director, one or more Vice Presidents, a Secretary and Treasurer, and such assistants as the Board of Directors may by resolution determine to be necessary. They shall be chosen by the Board of Directors, and shall hold office, subject to the laws of the State of Florida, until their successors are elected and shall qualify.

The number of Vice Presidents shall be fixed from time to time by the Board of Directors, which subject to the by-laws, shall prescribe the duties of each Vice President. This company may also have such other officers, agents, and factors deemed necessary and provided for by resolution of the Board of Directors and/or in the by-laws. All Officers, agents, and factors shall be chosen in such manner, hold their office for such time, and shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be prescribed by the by-laws or determined by the Directors. Any person may hold two or more offices, except that the President may not also be Secretary, Assistant Secretary, or Vice President of the Corporation. None of the officers of the Corporation, except the President, need also be a member of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may at any time declare an office vacant or remove any officer and elect a successor thereto, and the stockholders may at any special meeting of the stockholders called for that purpose remove any director with or without cause.

(C) The Directors may describe a method, or methods, for replacement of lost certificates and prescribe reasonable conditions by way of security for the issuance of new certificates therefore.

(D) No person shall be required to own, hold, or control stock in the Corporation as a condition precedent to holding an office or being a Director of this Corporation.

(E) The original incorporators of the incorporation shall have the right, upon its organization, to assign and deliver their subscriptions of stock, as set forth in Article IX hereof, to any other person, firm, or corporation who may hereafter become subscribers to the capital stock of the Corporation, who upon accepting of such assignment shall stand in lieu of the original incorporators and assume, and carry out, all the rights, liabilities, and duties entailed by the said subscriptions, subject to the laws of the State of Florida and the execution of the necessary instruments of assignment.

(F) No contract, or other transaction, between the Corporation and any other Corporation, in the absence of fraud shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that any one or more of the Directors of the Corporation is or are interested in or is a Director or Officer or are Directors or Officers of such Corporations and any Director, or Directors, individually or jointly, may be a party or parties to or may be interested in any such contract or transaction of the Corporation or in which the corporation is interested, and no contract, act, or transaction of
