Dear Sir:

Derek Haynes, president and registered agent for each of the above noted companies requested that I contact you regarding the 2000 Uniform Business Reports. Enclosed are three $150.00 checks from the above noted companies as payment for the annual fees. On behalf of the corporations Mr. Haynes requests that the $400 penalty charged to each corporation be abated.

The corporations did not receive the original annual reports. The duty of filing reports had been the responsibility of Mrs. Haynes, and unfortunately, she died in 1999.

Mr. Haynes had been unaware of the form requirements since his wife had been taking care of them. Nothing arrived in the mail earlier this year. Therefore, Mr. Haynes failed to file the forms and make the required payments. The stress caused by the loss of Mrs. Haynes added to the difficulties of operating the corporations. Please consider these circumstances and abate the penalties.

Sincerely,

Dana L. Harrison
