Glenda E. Hood:

We are one of the companies that sent their registration fees to the Corporate Compliance Center, thinking that they were working with the Florida State Government in enforcing compliance with company laws. I received your correspondence recently and was confused with the situation because I thought the funds were handed over to the government by this organization. However, I received a letter from them earlier this week explaining the situation and requesting that the filing fees be sent to you without further delay. It assures us that we will not be charged a late filing fee for this late filing.

I have enclosed the regular filing fee of $150.00.

Thanks for your kind consideration in this matter.

Yours truly,

Howard Howe
