Re: Application for Reinstatement, Document #P96000044840

Dear Ms. Mortham:

Our company was incorporated in May, 1996. The annual fee for 1997 was paid in March, 1997. The mailing address listed on the annual report is the address of the accounting firm who handled the transaction for us. At the time we did not know the location we would use. The address was inadvertently never changed, so the annual report packet went to the accountant's address, 6301 N.W. 5th Way. In the meantime, the accounting firm was sold and I can only assume that these forms got misplaced until I received them in the mail today.

I was in touch with your office immediately and explained my tale of woe. I was advised to write a letter of explanation and send a check in the amount of $300.00 for reinstatement; otherwise the fee would be $900.00. I ask for your leniency and understanding under the circumstances.

Also, does this amount include the 1999 annual filing fee? If not, I will need these documents, as I have not received them.

Very truly yours,

ELEVATOR CAB & CONTROL, INC.
