Dear Sir/Madam:

I am writing to request a waiver of the late filing penalty for the 1999 Annual Report for Apparel Consulting Services, Inc. My client, the owner of Apparel Consulting Services, Inc., is a diligent, conscientious elderly gentlemen. He retains my services to assist in meeting all tax compliance matters. Due to his age, he does not always understand or remember my directions.

Ordinarily I attempt to have this client sign tax forms in my presence. I always provide stamped, addressed envelopes for him and when possible I mail his tax documents to reduce the possibility that he will file them at his office instead of mailing them. Because the Annual Report is not a tax document and did not require my attention to complete, I advised my client that it did not require my attention. My instructions were to sign the form and send it along with the $150 fee. My client only remembered that it did not require my attention and therefore signed it and filed it in his office. He assumed the fee discussion was regarding my fees if I had given the document my attention.

This corporation is a very small personal service corporation which certainly cannot afford the reinstatement fee. The 1999 income-to-date has been nearly negligible. It would be more pragmatic and economically feasible to start a new corporation if the Division of Corporations does not grant this request.

Please find enclosed the $150 fee. Also please advise as soon as possible if this request is not granted so that my client can start a new corporation.

Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,

Patrick Cotter
