To Whom it may Concern:

In reference to the 1998 Corporate filing fee notice sent in the beginning of 1998, we are notifying you that we never received this notice. As to the second notice you sent we did not receive that until the first of Sept. 1998. At that time I mailed a check in the amount of $150.00 along with the form. I have since contacted your office to find out if you had received the check and form. I was told that you never received either. I have contacted my bank and the check has never cleared the bank. So we assume that the postal service has lost this mail sent to you. The check number is 1892 and made out in the amount of $150.00. It was dated and mailed on Sept. 5th, 1998. If you have received this since please notify us and let us know. Also please return the enclosed check so that we do not double the payment.

We appreciate your prompt attention to this matter, as we have no control over the United States Postal Service. If you require a tracer put on this through the postal service I will do it right away. Since we did not receive the first notice in the mail and received the second notice late and then it was lost in the mail, we are enclosing a new check # 1945 in the amount of $150.00 for the original filing fee. I do not feel that since we never received the first notice that we are liable to pay the $400.00 late charge.

Sincerely,
