RE:Document #P96000048860

I am writing to inform you that the first notice of the annual report for 1999 was never received. I did however receive the second notice but not until after the May 1 due date. The business address changed during the year (see annual report attached) and I assume the form was never forwarded to me.

Based on this and also based on the corporation's prior history of filing the annual reports on time I would like to request that the $150 that is attached be accepted as payment in full for the 1999 annual report.

Yours truly,

Jennifer Sagan
President
