ARTICLE XII: Indemnification.

A. Every person, and his heirs, executors and administrators, who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding of any kind, whether civil, criminal, administrative, arbitratative or investigative, or was or is the subject of any claim, and whether or not by or in the right of the corporation, by reason of his being or having been a director or officer of the corporation, or by reason of his serving or having served at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, committee, trust or other enterprise, or at the request of the corporation in any capacity that under Federal Law regulating employee benefit plans would or might constitute him a fiduciary with respect to any such plan, whether or not such plan is or was for employees of the corporation, shall be indemnified by the corporation against expenses (including attorney's fees), judgments, fines, penalties, awards, costs, amounts paid in settlements and liabilities of all kinds, actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with, or resulting from, such action, suit, proceeding or claim if he acted in good faith and in the manner he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation, except for any such amount resulting from his own gross negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of his duty to the corporation. The termination of any such action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order or conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, or by settlement, shall not of itself create a presumption that any such person did not act in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation or a presumption of gross negligence or willful misconduct.

B. Any indemnification under the preceding paragraph (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of such person is proper in the circumstances because he had met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in said paragraph. Such determination may be made either:

(i) by the Board of Directors of the corporation by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or

(ii) if such a quorum is not obtainable or, even if obtainable, a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or

(iii) by the stockholders.

C. Expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by or in respect of any such person in connection with any such action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, arbitral or investigative, may be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition thereof upon receipt of an undertaking by, or on behalf of, such person to repay such amount, unless it shall ultimately be determined that he is entitled to be indemnified by the corporation.

D. The Board of Directors of the corporation shall have the power, generally and in specific cases, to indemnify its other employees and agents to the same extent as provided in this Article with respect to its directors and officers.

E. The provisions of this Article are in addition to, and not in substitution for, any other right to indemnity to which any person who is or may be indemnified by or pursuant to this Article may otherwise be entitled, and to the powers otherwise accorded by law to the corporation to indemnify any such person and to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any such person against any liability asserted against or incurred by him in any capacity referred to in this Article or arising out of his status as serving or having served in any such capacity (whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify against such liability).

F. If any provision of this Article shall be adjudicated invalid or unenforceable, such adjudication shall not be deemed to invalidate or otherwise affect any other provision hereof or any power of indemnity which the corporation may have under the laws of the State of Florida.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned does set his hand and seal and has acknowledged and filed the foregoing Articles of Incorporation under the laws of the State of Florida this 31st day of May, 1996.
