ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
HUDDLESTON & PALUMBO, P.A.

FILED
96 JUN 12 AM 11:27
SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

The undersigned subscriber to these Articles of Incorporation, a natural person competent to contract and a attorney at law duly licensed to render services as such under the laws of the State of Florida, hereby forms a corporation for profit under the Florida Professional Service Corporation Act and other laws of the State of Florida.

ARTICLE I - NAME

The name of this corporation is: HUDDLESTON & PALUMBO, P.A.

ARTICLE II - DURATION AND COMMENCEMENT

This corporation is to exist perpetually. The date when corporate existence shall commence shall be as of the date of execution and acknowledgement of these Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE III - PURPOSE

This corporation is organized for the following purposes: To engage in every phase and aspect of rendering to the public the same professional services an attorney at law duly licensed under the laws of the State of Florida is authorized to render, but such professional services shall be rendered only through its officers, participating attorneys and agents who are duly licensed to practice law in the State of Florida, or any other state which may require such license for the services being rendered. To engage generally in the provision of legal services.

To invest the funds of the corporation in real estate, mortgages, stocks, bonds or any other type of investments, and to own real and personal property necessary for the rendition of professional services.

To enter into, or become a partner in, any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interest, or cooperation, joint venture or otherwise, with any person, firm or corporation to carry on any business which this corporation has the direct or incidental authority to pursue.

To purchase and acquire any or all of its shares owned and held by any such stockholder as should desire to sell, transfer, or otherwise dispose of his shares, or any or all of its shares owned and held by a stockholder who dies; provided, however, the capital of this corporation cannot be impaired thereby.

To enter into, for the benefit of its employees, one or more of the following: (1) a pension plan, (2) a profit-sharing plan, (3) a stock bonus plan, (4) a thrift and savings plan, (5) a restricted stock option plan, or (6) any other retirement or incentive compensation plan.

Whenever the corporation shall be engaged in the business of exploiting natural resources or other wasting assets, dividends may be declared and paid in cash out of the depletion or similar reserves at the discretion of the Board of Directors and in conformity with the provisions of the Florida General Corporation Act and the Florida Professional Service Corporation Act.

The corporation shall, to the fullest extent permitted by the provisions of the Florida Corporation Act and the Florida Professional Service Corporation Act, as the same may be amended and supplemented, indemnify any and all persons whom it shall have power to indemnify under said provisions from and against any and all of the expenses, liabilities or other matters referred to in or covered by said provisions, and the indemnification provided for herein shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under any By-Law, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity, and as to action in any other capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

To do anything necessary and proper for the accomplishment or furtherance of any of the purposes or the attaining of any of the objects enumerated in these Articles of Incorporation or any amendment thereof, necessary or incidental to the protection and benefit of the corporation, and in general, either alone or in association with other corporations, firms or individuals, to carry on any lawful pursuit necessary or incidental to the furtherance of the purposes or objectives of the corporation.

It is intended that this corporation may conduct and transact any business lawfully authorized and not prohibited by Chapter 607, Florida Statutes, as the same may be from time to time amended; provided however, that nothing herein shall be construed as authorizing the corporation to engage in any business other than the rendition of the professional services for which it is specifically incorporated, and nothing herein shall be interpreted to prohibit the corporation from investing its funds in real estate, mortgages, stocks, bonds, or any other type of investments, or from owning real or personal property necessary for the rendition of professional services.

The paragraphs of this Article shall be construed as both objects and purposes of the corporation, and it is hereby expressly provided that the foregoing enumeration of specific purposes shall not be held to limit or restrict in any manner the purposes of this corporation otherwise permitted by law.

ARTICLE IV -CAPITAL STOCK

This corporation is authorized to issue Five Hundred shares of One and no/100 Dollar ($1.00) par value common stock, and shall commence business with ten (10) shares fully paid and nonassessable.

ARTICLE V - PREEMPTIVE RIGHTS

Every shareholder, upon the sale for cash of any new stock of this corporation of the same kind, class or series as that which he already holds, shall have the right to purchase his pro rata share (as nearly as may be done without issuance of fractional shares) at the price at which it is offered to others.

ARTICLE VI - QUALIFICATIONS OF SHAREHOLDERS

The corporation shall not issue any of its capital stock to anyone other than an individual who is duly licensed or otherwise legally authorized to render the same specific professional services as those for which the corporation is incorporated. No shareholder of this corporation shall enter into a voting trust agreement or any other type of agreement vesting another person with the authority to exercise the voting power of any or all of his stock.
