To whom it may concern:

I am enclosing $150.⁰⁰ in a check for my Annual Report, I realize this was due by 1 May. I was told when I called your office to send a letter of explanation & I may not be charged the $400. Late fee, If I am, please notify me & I will send it.

I moved my office on Sept. 1, 1997 to the new Address on the form and I never received my Annual Report in the mail. I get so many forms from the State & IRS that it completely slipped my mind. Also, my father was in ICU for 6 weeks prior to his death on June 22, 1998, so I was not paying any attention to this business. For the last 3 weeks I've attempted ~~to~~ to get the form but your telephone system said I couldn't leave a message. Finally I ordered the form online. My sincere apologies for my lateness, if my reasons are unacceptable please send correspondence.

Thank you,

Vicky L. Gallas
