To Whom It May Concern:

Enclosed is payment for the 1999 Profit Corporation Annual Report for JKB Construction, Inc. We never received a report until we received the second notice. Upon receipt of the second notice we called the phone number listed on the back of the report. After explaining that we never received the first notice, the operator told us to write a letter stating that and pay $150.00. She said that a late fee would not be charged.

If you check your records you will see that all previous reports have been on time. I assure you that in the future I will personally be looking for the annual report to come in the mail. If we do not receive it, I will call to ensure that this does not happen again. Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

James K. Boyd
President
